

POLICY STATEMENT #7 – COMMUNICATIONS

In addition to the various communications between the Corporation and its Owners as prescribed by the Condominium Act, 1998, in an effort to establish and maintain a “hands on” approach to the dissemination of Corporation-related information, the following communication methods shall be used by the Board of Directors:

- Publication of a quarterly (seasonal) Newsletter will be undertaken directly by a member of the Board – the first edition is planned for the Fall of 2009. While the Newsletters shall be primarily authored by the Board, Owners and Residents will be invited to submit articles for the Board’s consideration, in advance of quarterly publications;
- Effective immediately, the Corporation shall assume responsibility for the maintenance and updating of the Corporation’s website;
- Minutes will be distributed via hardcopy or/and via the Corporation’s website in accordance with Policy Statement #5.
- Communication of ongoing operational issues such repair and maintenance projects, facilities closures, etc., shall continue to be done by way of Notices posted on the Corporation’s existing bulletin boards;
- The Board will continue to conduct semi-annual general meetings (the Spring AGM and the Fall Information Forum);
